The UCSB MultiCultural Center Presents

DIVERSITY LECTURE SERIES

RACE AND THE NEW BIOCITIZEN
DOROTHY ROBERTS

In this talk Dorothy Roberts discusses a new racial politics that relies on re-inventing the political system of race in biological terms using genomic science and biotechnologies. Her presentation is based on her new book Fatal Invention: How Science, Politics, and Big Business Re-create Race in the Twenty-first Century. Roberts, the Kirkland & Ellis Professor at Northwestern University School of Law, is also author of the award-winning books Killing the Black Body: Race, Reproduction, and the Meaning of Liberty and Shattered Bonds: The Color of Child Welfare.
